

PRESENTS

THE RENEGADES: A BEEP BALL STORY

National Braille Press and the Association of Blind Citizens will premiere the award winning documentary, The Renegades: A Beep Ball Story

Thursday, April 11, 2013

Revere Hotel Boston Common

6:00pm Reception

7:00pm Film

This award winning documentary tells the inspiring story of New England's only blind baseball team, the Renegades. It highlights the abilities of blind individuals, volunteerism, fierce competitiveness and asks the question, what is winning? Click here to watch the trailer:

<http://www.bestdogeverfilms.com/#>.

A Q&A will follow with directors Jack Clancy and Liz Clancy Lerner and members of the Renegades.

To learn more or make your reservation please contact:

Jennifer Stewart, National Braille Press, 617-266-6160 x436 or jstewart@nbp.org